①

4	371	7
4	365	7
4	357	5

S.I

A challenging opening par 4. Aim down the right side of the fairway as it slopes away to the left.

②

4	304	13
4	295	13
4	285	11

S.I

A dog leg right. Don't be too greedy with the tee shot. Aim to the top of the hill to open up the green.

③

4	284	15
4	275	15
4	252	15

S.I

Long hitters be aware. Out of bounds on the right. Play it safe and aim left of the bunkers. Opening up a good birdie attempt.

④

4	443	3
4	435	3
4	402	9

S.I

A testing par 4. A good drive is essential. Most members go for the green in three, and are happy to walk off with a five

⑤

3	132	17
3	123	17
3	103	17

S.I

A short par 3, the green sits nestled amongst trees with a bunker guarding the front left and a bunker awaits on the right.

⑥

4	441	1
4	435	1
4	386	1

S.I

The longest par 4, a slight dog leg right, don't take on the right side corner to save 20 yards! It could cost you a double.

⑦

4	399	5
4	387	5
4	341	3

S.I

Aim down the left side of the fairway for your best chance of a clear shot to the green. The green runs left to right from the front edge, guarded by bunkers left and right..

⑧

3	200	11
3	190	11
3	174	13

S.I

A high tee shot is needed to hold the green otherwise play short to run on in between the two bunkers. left and right..

⑨

5	548	9
5	542	9
5	509	7

S.I

A superb view from the elevated tee. Two good strikes to the left of the fairway will leave you a short chip to a tricky green that runs away right to left.
